

EMPLOYEE PRIVACY

27 SEPTEMBER 2005, INTERCONTINENTAL HOTEL, 9 AM - 5 PM

Workers around the world are frequently subject to some form of monitoring by their employers. However, in many cases workplace monitoring can seriously compromise the privacy and dignity of employees thus impacting morale and retention. Employee Privacy is a one day conference, in which industry experts will detail all the legal, ethical and productivity issues regarding one of the workplaces most sensitive topics. They will offer real world strategies and solutions that will help ensure organisations and HR adopt a privacy policy that works for everyone.

IN ONE DAY ALL THOSE ATTENDING EMPLOYEE PRIVACY WILL LEARN:

- Employee privacy laws and conforming to Singapore regulations
- Breach of trust and handling confidential data
- Privacy & confidentiality in the management of employee medical records
- How to balance employee privacy with corporate governance, corporate policies
- Workplace Harassment – Could It Happen to You?
- Managing employer-employee relations while monitoring in an organisation

PLUS

CASE STUDIES FROM CISCO SECURITY PTE LTD AND SINGAPORE MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- HR Director, HR Managers & HR Practitioners
- In-house Counsel
- CEOs, COOs, Managing Directors and General Managers
- All those responsible for employee relations within their organisation
